IN THE COMMUNITY

Transcona BIZ would like to thank our seasonal Community Ambassadors for their hard work over the summer. Planting and maintaining our gorgeous floral displays, ensuring our downtown area remained clean, removing unsightly graffiti from homes, businesses, and public spaces, coordinating our Festival of Banner Program, posting on our social media, setting up our weekly Community Markets, and being friendly familiar faces around town.

Left to Right: Gemma Chaudhuri (Events & Office Coordinator), Ryleigh, Teryl, Adinna, Alandra, Austin, Hayden, Sarah and Leila Dance (Executive Director)

This year's Community Ambassadors were part of two different funding programs, The Green Team through the Province of Manitoba which provided us with 4 students and the Canada Summer Jobs Program through the Government of Canada which provided us with funding for 3 students. We will miss their antics and humour around the BIZ office, and wish them every success as they enter another school year.

2021 FESTIVAL OF BANNERS

Things just got wilder in Transcona! As you might have spotted, the 2021 Festival of Banners is now on display! The theme for 2021 is Transcona Wild, celebrating wildlife and wild spaces from around the world. Students from K-12 in the Transcona area were encouraged to research their favourite animals and habitats to design a banner. We were overwhelmed by the number of students who chose to participate, with over 700 entries!

A total of 65 students were chosen by the community to paint their artwork on large banners with paint containers and boxes generously donated by Sevala's Ukrainian Deli and the Silver Spike Saloon. Banners are displayed on light poles throughout downtown Transcona in the following areas:

- Regent Ave W between Kanata St and Plessis Rd
- Bond St between Regent Ave W and Pandora Ave E
- Pandora Ave between Day St and Plessis Rd
- Plessis Rd from Regent Ave heading south towards the underpass
- Around Park City Commons strip mall parking lot near No Frills

Enjoy hunting for each banner and seeing all the wonderful artworks around town. This year our seasonal community ambassadors scoured the streets to produce an interactive banner map which can be found on our website at transconabiz.ca. Banners will be proudly displayed over the next year, before being taken down in 2022 to make way for the next Festival of Banners.

A huge thank you and congratulations to all the artists, teachers, and families who participated and helped make this year's Festival a roaring success. We appreciate your hard work and strong community spirit!

NEW PRINCESS ON THE BLOCK

As a 10-year-old girl Brittany learned what the word “entrepreneur” meant. She had taken her love of sewing and started making beanie frogs and selling them at local craft sales and at the lake on weekends. Those frogs went everywhere, even hopping all the way to England! Knowing deep down that her love of sewing could become her career; she dreamed of one day becoming a costume designer.

Born and raised in Transcona along with her sister Crystal, Brittany went on to study the Fashion Program at Murdoch Mackay. While on maternity leave in 2015, her love of costume design and everything “princess” led to the beginnings of a party princess business. The unparalleled quality of Brittany’s costumes gained popularity, making her the talk of the ‘castle’.

Six years later, Brittany Rae Designs is a seamstress business at 127 Regent Ave West that creates unique handmade items including children’s clothing, mommy and me dresses, hair accessory masks, scarf masks, and gorgeous, well sought-after princess gowns that are shipped worldwide.

The team consists of owner, designer, and head seamstress Brittany; bookkeeper, administrator, and seamstress Crystal; and fellow Fashion Program Graduate and seamstress, Darcee - All of whom are moms of two. Though running a business can be hard, it has given these entrepreneurs the flexibility to do what they love, whilst accommodating the kid’s school schedules.

Although the pandemic has caused obstacles for every small business, the team’s creativity has helped them through tough times. Brittany’s scarf mask design sold 500 pieces throughout the colder months, while the springtime hair accessory mask caught the eye of CTV news. In 2021, Brittany Rae Designs was nominated as Best Dressmaker in Winnipeg and won Platinum!

Despite these grand successes, Brittany’s proudest moment has been teaching her long-term autistic student, Lyrissa how to sew. As Brittany’s first student, Lyrissa has proven that anyone can do anything they put their mind to and has cemented Brittany’s love of teaching.

Brittany offers a range of sewing lessons, from basic sewing to advance pattern making and mentorship, Monday to Thursday 10 am to 7pm and Fridays 10am to 3pm, with bookings available through her website:

Brittany is pleased to offer a $10 coupon to any product in the online store and a free 1-hour private lesson to the first 5 people who message Brittany Rae Designs and mention this article.

A testament to making her own dreams a reality, Brittany’s passion can be easily seen in all her creations and is a welcome addition to the Zone; “My business tag line is “Live Your Dream” because I have been living mine through sewing!”

TRANSCONA'S LUCKY CHARM

By Cornelius Thiessen

Most of Transcona's small businesses rely on word of mouth to help them grow. They rely on their customers and clients who have been served well to share their experiences and tell others. In these times with tight margins, radio or newspaper advertising is unaffordable. Thankfully, Transcona residents love to support local and take care of their own people by sharing stories of their favorite businesses.

Sixteen year ago, Trang Nguyen and her husband, Khanh Dinh came to Winnipeg from Vietnam in search of a better life. They had both received their training in a Vietnamese Beauty Salon and wanted to continue their work here in Canada. After 6 years of working in other shops, they had saved enough to start their own business at 453 Regent Ave West and named it "Lucky Nails". Soon enough, word got out about this extremely clean and friendly nail shop at the corner of Regent and Hoka.

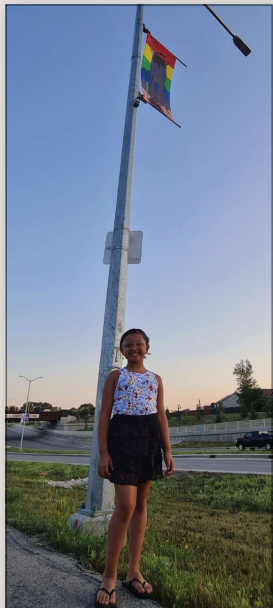

Nguyen and Dinh have many returning customers and are happy to provide basic services like manicures and pedicures, but also welcome the challenge of intricate nail art and creating custom designs.

Everything is sterilized, clean, and the latest equipment is used. Although I'm not one for a manicure, when people talk about Lucky Nails, I've only heard good reviews; "I wouldn't go anywhere else"; "Trang always knows exactly what I want"; "Such lovely, friendly people".

This is how it is with all our small Transcona businesses. From Aunt Monica's Attic on the Regent Strip to Fas Gas on Pandora, no one needs advertising budgets, they simply rely on word of mouth from their customers and positive reviews on social media. If you want to support local and keep business in your community, Lucky Nails is one small business that is very deserving of your patronage and positive word-of-mouth reviews.

COMMUNITY MARKETS

The Transcona BIZ Community Markets took place on Thursdays throughout July and August, as well as two Wednesday Night Markets. Over the summer Transconians had the opportunity to shop for locally grown fresh produce, handmade arts and crafts, specialty teas, artisanal hot sauces, honey, homemade jams, baked goods, locally crafted beer, wine and spirits, jewellery, clothing, accessories, homewares, and food trucks.

Our location change to the Transcona Christian Reformed Church parking lot allowed us to continue to offer this weekly event amidst the pandemic, whilst allowing more space for everyone. Having a greater variety of vendors this year ensured that each week showcased a unique mix of local products and talented Winnipeggers. Transcona BIZ would like to thank all the vendors for attending, Transcona Christian Reformed Church for hosting us, and all the community members for visiting the markets and making them a success.

CELEBRATING CANADA DAY WITH A TRANSCONA TWIST

Over the week of Canada Day 2021, we put a call out to all Transconians to grab some clean gitch, down a double double and give'er for the Great Transconian Canada Day Scavenger Hunt! Participants were encouraged to walk, bike, or drive around downtown Transcona on their quest to find answers hidden better than salami on shoulder at a social. Teams that answered all questions correctly were entered into a draw to win the grand prize, and all participating teams were entered into a draw to win one of three summer fun packs.

Pre-registered teams had the chance to pick up a free Canada Day Celebration Kit while supplies lasted – which was not long, they flew out the door! The Scavenger Hunt consisted of a number of questions, with answers located in outdoor spaces around the Transcona Business Improvement Zone. Teams enjoyed searching for murals to discover Canadian animals, looking in business's window displays for great Canadian inventions, and counting flamingoes at the Transcona Public Library (148 in total!).

Five hand-painted Canada Day rocks were also hidden throughout the Zone, with a prize offered to anyone who found and returned a rock before the end of the month. After four of the five were found, we offered a clue for the sneakily hidden fifth rock, only to be met with a resounding “not yet” from the community - it seems Transconians like a challenge! All rocks were eventually found and returned to the office in exchange for a $50 gift card to a local BIZ member business.

Community members also had the chance to create a masterpiece for the Canada Day Walls of Fame Community Artwork Competition! Artists of all ages were encouraged to submit an entry inspired by the theme of ‘Celebrate Canada’. Winning entries included a hand-painted maple leaf, Canadian animals, local and national cuisines, communities celebrating, and ‘Ananas’; the talking pineapple from the Canadian French language children's television series Téléfrançais! Artworks were proudly displayed at the Wyatt Dowling / Wawanesa Community Walls of Fame at Transcona Centennial Square over the Summer.

Transcona BIZ would like to thank everyone who took part in our Canada Day celebrations, and congratulate our winning teams:

WYATT DOWLING/WAWANESA WALLS OF FAME

By Peter Martin

In 2012, I had the honour of being the Chair for the Transcona Centennial Celebrations. During that year, the Transcona BIZ held the grand opening of the Transcona Centennial Square at 135 Regent Avenue West. As the host of the festivities, I got to welcome the community to the Archambault Performance Pavilion ("The Stage"), the CN Clock Tower, New Flyer Peace Fountain and the Wyatt Dowling/Wawanesa Walls of Fame.

The Walls of Fame consist of two concrete, half-circles on the East and West side of the square and contain 80 spaces where names will be placed to posthumously honour those individuals and organizations who have been instrumental in the development, economic success, education, recreation, spiritualism, political life, and volunteerism of Transcona.

The Walls of Fame are a permanent tribute to all who have made Transcona what it is today. In 2013, six honourees were chosen, and a plaque was placed at the Square. Unfortunately, shortly after placement, this original plaque was stolen. In 2021, the Transcona BIZ replaced the plaques and updated their website to include photographs and history of all six honourees, which can also be found on the Transcona Museum's website.

Although there have been no additional names added over the last few years, I am happy to announce that the BIZ is now moving forward and actively seeking nominations. To learn more about nominating a community member or organization please visit: transconabiz.ca/transcona-centennial-square/walls-of-fame.

The deadline for submissions is December 31.

The Transcona BIZ is also looking for individuals from the Transcona community to form a selection committee. The committee will be responsible for reviewing, researching and judging entries for inclusion in the square. For more information, please contact the Transcona BIZ.
